How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Canoe Financial has rated the volatility of this Fund as medium to high.

This rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

Low	Low to medium	Medium	Medium to high	High
-----	---------------	--------	----------------	------

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund's returns, see the "What are the risks of investing in the Fund?" section of the Fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the Fund performed?

This section shows how Series O units of the Fund have performed. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This information is not available because Series O of the Fund has not been distributing shares under a simplified prospectus for a full calendar year. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the Fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This information is not available because Series O of the Fund has not been distributing shares under a simplified prospectus for a full calendar year. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

Average return

This information is not available because Series O of the Fund has not been distributing shares under a simplified prospectus for twelve consecutive months.

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who:

- are seeking long-term capital growth
- are looking to invest for the medium to long-term
- are looking to take advantage of the growth potential of companies involved in the energy sector
- have a medium to high tolerance for risk.

Do not invest in this fund unless you are willing to accept the potential loss of a portion of your investment, or if you have a short-term investment horizon.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your Fund in a non-registered account, Fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables outline the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series O shares of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

There are no sales charges for the purchase of Series O units of the Fund. However, any redemption fee applicable to Series O units will be set out in the Series O agreement relating to such units.

2. Fund expenses:

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

The series' annual management fee is negotiated and paid directly by the investor and will not exceed an annual rate of 2.25%. Fund expenses of this series have not been provided because no units of this series have been distributed.

More about the trailing commission

We do not pay a trailing commission to your representative on Series O units of this Fund.
